

A Dream

A Poem by Edgar Allen Poe

C.S.Watterson

Reflective
mp

Soprano
Alto

In vi - sions of the dark night I have dreamed of joy de - part -

Tenor
Bass

mf f

I have dreamed of joy de - part -

9

S.
A.

mf

ed, But a wa - king — dream of life and light Hath — left me bro - ken

T.
B.

mf

ed, But a wa - king — dream of life and light Hath — left me bro - ken

16

S.
A.

mp mf

heart - ed. What is not a dream by day to him whose eyes — are cast —

T.
B.

mp mf

heart - ed. What is not a dream by day to him whose eyes — are cast —

22

S.
A.

f

On things a - round him with a ray Turned — back u - pon the past?

T.
B.

f

On things a - round him with a ray Turned back u - pon the past?

29 mf

S. A. That ho-ly dream, ho - ly dream While all the world were chid-ing, Hath—

T. B. That ho-ly dream, ho - ly dream While all the world were chid-ing, Hath—

36 mf

S. A. cheered me as a love - ly beam A lone-ly spi - rit guid - ing. What

T. B. cheered me as a love - ly beam A lone-ly spi - rit guid - ing. What

42 f

S. A. through that light, through storm and night, So trem-bled from a - far?

T. B. through that light, through storm and night, So trem-bled from a - far?

47 molto rit.

S. A. What could there be more pure - ly bright In Truth's day star?

T. B. What could there be more pure - ly bright In Truth's day star?