Verse 2:

I don't have to answer any of these questions.
 Don't have no God to teach me no lessons.
 I come home in the evening, sit in my chair.
 One night, they called me for supper, but I never got up.
 I stayed right there in my chair.
 (To Chorus:)

Verse 3:

I wished I'd have known you,
 Wished I'd have shown you
 All of the things I was on the inside.
 I'd pretend to be sleeping
 When you come in in the morning
 To whisper goodbye, go to work in the rain.
 I don't know why, don't know why.

Chorus 2:

'Cause everyone's singing, we just wanna be heard.
 Disappearing everyday without so much as a word somehow.
 Wanna grab a hold of that little songbird,
 Take her for a ride to the top of the world right now.
