

I have heard so many songs

Zeph 3:17;
1 Cor 13:8; Col 2:2

Capo 1 (D)

(The Father's song)

Matt Redman

Gently

I have heard so ma - ny songs, ——— lis - tened to a
The Fa - ther's song, the Fa - ther's love, ——— You sung it o - ver thou - sand tongues, but there is one ——— that sounds a - bove them all. — me and for e - ter - ni - ty ——— it's

— writ - ten on my — heart. ———

Chorus Hea - ven's per - fect me - lo - dy, — the Cre - a - tor's —

— sym - pho - ny, — You are — sing - ing — o - ver me —

B \flat sus4 (A) Cm(Bm) γ B \flat /D (A) E \flat /G (D)

the Fa-ther's song. Hea-ven's perfect—

A \flat (G) B \flat /D (A) E \flat /G (D)

—mys-te-ry,— the King of love— has— sent for me,—

A \flat 2 (G) Fm7 (Em) B \flat 7 (A) E \flat (D)

and now You're sing-ing o - ver me— the Fa-ther's song.—

D.C. Last time E \flat (D) B \flat /D (A) E \flat /D \flat (D)

— The Fa-ther's song, the Fa-ther's love, You sung it o-ver

A \flat /C (G) Fm7 (Em) B \flat 7sus4 (A) B \flat 7 (A) E \flat (D)

me and for e - ter-ni-ty— it's writ-ten on my— heart.—